FUNDIT organizes its activity in accordance of knowledge nodules which work symbiotically in network with responsibility and autonomy. These nodules set three major areas of activity.

ESDi: Higher School of Design centre attached to Universitat Ramon Llull (URL). Activity nuclear body that develops university training of official degree and postgraduate studies, and research and experimentation in art and design fields.

Corporate Development: In charge of tasks associated with students’ admission, interuniversity relationships and accompaniment of graduates at the beginning and professional activity development, activities relating to design and digital art/design communication and promotion. Also in charge of all support tasks to entrepreneurship and quality assurance.

ESDi’s IuEATM: In charge of postgraduate studies, continuous training and culture dissemination in design and art field activities.